FROM: EA/ExDir

PFIAB apparently believes our HUMINT capabilities have suffered at the expense of technical collection systems and need considerable rebuilding. Admiral Inman has been trying to dispel some of these old myths while retaining PFIAB support for DDO expansion.

The DDCI thinks it would be helpful to have [redacted] recently returned Moscow Attache George Montgomery in briefing PFIAB at its 12 May meeting on the practical limitations and problems of HUMINT collection in the hostile Soviet environment. [redacted]
